Washington, N. C. March 27.—This norning a telephone message was urned in to police headquarters by J. morning a telephone message was turned in to police headquarters by J. Havens, a prominent and wealthy manufacturer residing on Main Street, stating that an unknown white man had been found in his dining room in a drunk and disorderly condition. It seems that Mr. Havens, hearing a suspicious noise in the house, went down to investigate and found the man lying on a couch in a drunken stuper. Upon ordering him to leave, the man refused and advanced on Mr. Havens, who is lame, in a threatening attitude. Mr. Havens knocked him down twice and succeeded in getting him to the door and ordered him to leave the premises. After getting him to the door and ordered him to leave the premises. After getting him out of the house Havens told his night watchman to follow the man, which he did, tracing him to and seeing him enter a residence on Fourth Street. When the call was received at police headquarters the right force was off on another call, and Chief of Police M, J. Fowler was communicated with at his residence and proceeded to immediately investigate the affair.

He found a young man about twenty-four years old asseep in a room, fully dressed, with his clothes disordered and somewhat bloody. The manupon being "vestioned denied any knowledge of the affair and gave his name as Chas, Johnson, but was ideptified by Policeman Harris as George Foreman, of this city. A warrant having been sworn out by Chief Fowler, charging him with forcible trespass, he was taken to the City Jail and locked up. He will be given a preliminary hearing in the Mayor's Court to-morrow morning. The man was supposed to have entered the house some time during the early morning for some unknown object, evidently not theft, as nothing has been missed.

[Special to The Times-Dispaten.]
New York, March 27.—With the beginning of the Easter season the Cathelle Church in this country will enter upon a vigorous campaign for home missions, giving special attention to the broadening of its activity in behalf of the negroes. The campaign will be in charge of the Rev. John E. Burke, director-general of the Cathelle board for mission work among the colored people.

director-general of the Cathelic board for mission work among the colored people.

It is proposed to build new and larger schools in the South, tear down old mission chapels and in their places raise substantial churches, encourage negro youths to study for the priest-hood, and give the missionuries impetus to continue their work for the conversion and education of the negro. Father Burke has decided to raise annually for this purpose the sum of $100,000, and to aid him the directorate has appointed the Rev. P. J. Bustin, of Scranton, Pa., to assist him. The entire hierarchy has cordially approved of Father Burke's plan, and he will tour the province of New York.
